

Recall Serial No. 23-001
Date 11/27/23

CITY OF PRESCOTT RECALL PETITION RECEIPT

I, Sarah M. Siep, City Clerk for the City of Prescott Arizona, have received on this 27 day of November, 2023 from Grant Quezada, a recall petition filed against the following:

Name: Phil Goode
Office: Mayor

And issued the above referenced serial number. From this date, petitioners have 120 days to file the necessary number of signatures associated recall petition.

Sarah M. Siep
Sarah M. Siep, City Clerk

Prescott Arizona City Clerk Sarah Siep,

We, as individual citizens of Prescott, AZ - Greg Raskin, Rebecca Ruffner, and Grant Quezada - have jointly submitted a comprehensive recall application for Prescott City Mayor Phil Goode. Today, on November 27, 2023, we have provided both a physical packet and the required PDF via email to the City Clerk's office, aligning with the procedures outlined in A.R.S. 19.202.01 (B). Due to limitations within the online Recall Petition General Statement on the Secretary of State's website, Grant Quezada will serve as the designated contact person on behalf of our collective efforts.

Our rationale for presenting this recall petition collectively rests on the necessity to unify our community amid the current political climate in Prescott. The enclosed packet includes the essential components:

- The name and title of the officer subject to recall: Prescott City Mayor Phil Goode.
- A succinct general statement, adhering to the two-hundred-word limit, articulating the grounds for demanding Mayor Goode's recall. This statement mirrors the online General Statement submitted.
- Signed and dated application forms by the applicants, emphasizing our commitment to this collective initiative.

We appreciate your attention to this matter and look forward to the due process concerning our submission. For any further information or clarification, please feel free to contact Grant Quezada at _____ as the designated representative.

We appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Grant Quezada, Rebecca Ruffner, Greg Raskin

General Statement

Prescott citizens are deeply troubled by Mayor Phil Goode's breaches of the Prescott City Charter, lack of transparency through continued Executive Meetings, interference with administrative duties and the wrongful demand for the resignation of City Manager Katie Gregory. Mayor Goode's actions raise significant concern about the ability to ethically fulfill his responsibilities.

Furthermore, Mayor Goode's actions constitute malfeasance in office, creating a hostile work environment and violating city policies against harassment and discrimination. The very people that run our city have lost faith in his ability to lead.

Lastly, Mayor Goode has failed to follow through with his duties to adhere to our City's contractual obligations. This is evidenced through impending multimillion dollar lawsuits that will delay much needed city services and significantly raise our property taxes.

Therefore, to uphold the integrity of our city's leadership and protect the welfare of its residents, there is a growing call for Mayor Goode's recall.

In his place we confidently endorse Stan Goligoski. A native of Prescott, Stan will continue to serve this City with honesty, integrity, transparency and above all, inclusivity for all. A vote for a recall of Mayor Goode is a vote for a future Mayor-Elect Goligoski.
